Yankees HOPE Week Makes Big Splash:

It was water balloons and baseball memories for a crew of kids affected by 9/11

By Kieran Darcy

ESPNNewYork.com

July 28, 2011

NEW YORK -- Most of the 46,132 people at Yankee Stadium on Tuesday will remember it as the day CC Sabathia struck out 14 Mariners and flirted with perfection.

I will remember it as the day I witnessed a world-class water balloon fight, and got to feel like a kid again.

For that, I owe a big thanks to my good pal Brendan, and to an organization called Tuesday's Children .