DUNHAM AND CAMPOLI SKATE WITH KIDS AT THE RINX

New York Islanders players Mike Dunham and Chris Campoli took time to participate in the Tuesday's Children Skate at the Rinx in Hauppauge. Tuesday's Children is a not for profit organization that has made a long-term commitment to every child that lost a parent on 9/11. This organization aims at making sure these children reach their full potential.

Mike and Chris skated with the children who attended. They also took time to take pictures and sign autographs for everyone in attendance. Both players expressed how happy they were to lend a hand in making life a little happier for these children who have been through so much at such a young age.

Sparky, the Ice Girls, and Olympian Angela Ruggiero were also at the event taking pictures and signing autographs. Everyone who attended this event had a great time.
