

About Tuesday's Children

Tuesday's Children's Gold Star Family Programs guide Families of the Fallen beyond grief into next steps towards a lifetime of healing.

Tuesday's Children pledges to Keep the Promise to deliver long-term healing and impactful programs to children and families recovering from incidents of terrorism, military conflict or mass violence. Our time-tested approach—forged in the aftermath of Tuesday, September 11th—enables families and communities torn apart by tragedy to heal, recover and thrive for a lifetime.

Our work fills the gap in available long-term healing programs for U.S. Military Families of Fallen.

TUESDAY'S CHILDREN

“There is a common misconception that support is only needed in the initial aftermath of tragedy, and we at Tuesday's Children know that families and children need a lifetime of healing.”

Creative Insight

Our renowned Creative Insight program is based on the distinguished Creativity in Business course at Stanford University. This program enables individuals to discover and utilize their creative potential, encourages innovative problem-solving and provides the tools needed to face challenges and experience more fulfilling lives.

Helping Heals

These programs are designed to give teens and adults the opportunity to give back. Studies show that giving back to others helps improve mental health, self-esteem, emotional well-being, and life satisfaction.

Family Engagement Events

Tuesday's Children hosts family engagements such as fishing trips and sporting events in various locations to enhance resilience by building relationships among families. These events create positive new traditions, and introduce Tuesday's Children's programs for future participation.

Mentoring

Youth Mentoring is designed to encourage and support mutually beneficial relationships between adult role models and children ages 6-18. These relationships enable children to grow emotionally and socially, build resilience and develop coping skills while encouraging them to make healthy choices.

“Sometimes we don’t laugh because we think we need to act a certain way. You’re supposed to act like a widow. The label is on - ‘You’re a widow’ - so, that means you’re not supposed to be smiling, [but] it’s OK to laugh, it’s OK to cry, it’s OK to move on, and it’s OK to live, because we’re still left her on this earth to live. And that’s what we do.”

HEART TO HEART PARTICIPANT & MILITARY WIDOW

Project COMMON BOND

Project COMMON BOND brings together young adults, ages 15-20, from around the world who share a ‘common bond’ — the loss of a family member related to terrorism, violent extremism, conflict or U.S. military service. Participants build friendships, collaborate to promote the dignity of all, learn conflict negotiation and peace building skills, all to create positive change in their lives and communities. As an extension of the summer program, the winter session focuses on conflict resolution and negotiation.

Heart to Heart

Heart to Heart retreats build resilience for participants and foster long-term healing. They make connections, learn ways to navigate challenges, discover resources that aid in healing and have a “time out” to refresh their minds. Tuesday's Children hosts a retreat for military widows and a separate retreat for Gold Star Moms.

Career Resource Center

Our Career Resource Center provides career and college planning services to help prepare adolescents for college and future careers. Interactive workshops, seminars and leadership development programs enhance their life skills, social connections, leadership development, college preparation and career guidance.
